

Archive Video Project Pitch

---

Agriculture & Environment

Abbeyfield and Wesley Logo transitional opening.

Alsatian dog on tightrope / Calrossie Prince Charlie presentation of trophy.
From: "Royal Ulster Agricultural Society second century Balmoral" (1955)

Attendances were high and the show reflected farming advances.
From: "The Royal Ulster Agricultural Society's 92nd annual show Balmoral" (1959)

Northern Ireland sheep inspection. Quality of sheep and close ups.
From: "Sheep sale. Farmers inspect sheep" (1968)

Harvesting Crops with tractor and stacking hay bale.
From: "Harvesting of crops by tractor" (1968)

South Belfast lady Dixon Park.
From: "International Rose Trials at Lady Dixon Park" (1968)

Royal Visit: Duke of Edinburgh visits Mahee Island.
From: "Duke of Edinburgh visits wildlife reserve" (1968)

Lord Grey and PM attend Ballymena Show
From: "Ballymena Show PM & Lord Grey attend" (1969)

Northern Ireland - Kids playing in the snow.
From: "Weather - snow, includes snowball fight" (1969)

Family in Ballycastle wins horse ploughing competition
From: "Ballycastle horse ploughing competition" (1969)

Schoolchildren pick strawberries, Young farmers Omagh Show
From: "Young farmers attend the Omagh Show" (1971)

Closing/outro transition or animation of the Abbeyfield and Wesley logo.

Arts & Entertainment

Abbeyfield and Wesley Logo transitional opening.

The BBC Symphony Orchestra in rehearsal, playing Beethoven's 5th Symphony.
From: "News Time: BBC Symphony Orchestra" (1967)

Children sing Dana's Eurovision-winning song "All Kinds of Everything".
From: "Londonderry children sing Dana's Eurovision-winning song" (1970)

Joan Regan comes off plane to sing in Northern Ireland.
From "Joan Regan arrives in Northern Ireland to entertain the soldiers.". (1970)

Drama teachers and students take part in street theatre, supported by Voluntary Service Bureau and Student Action Project
From: "Drama teachers and students take part in street theatre". (1971)

Lammas Fair, followed by the Ideal Home Exhibition
From: "Ballycastle holds its Lammas Fair". (1971)

Forestry Show at Castlewellan, involving displays, demonstrations and competitions.
From: "Ulster 71 continues with a Forestry Show at Castlewellan". (1971)

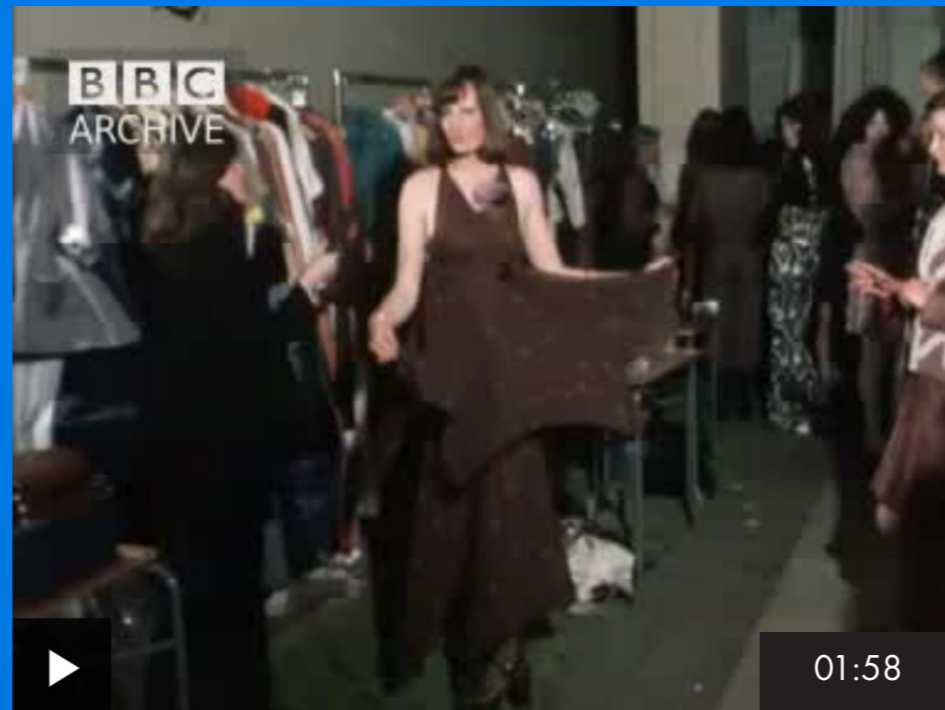

Robin Harris interviews for Ulster Museum new galleries.
From: "The Ulster Museum opens more galleries to public" (1971)

Ulster 71 exhibition jousting match.
From: "Interviews stunt men posing as knights (jousting)" (1971)

Roisin Walsh interviews the director, Allen Simpson about new play.
From "A new play by Joe O'Donnell arrives at the Lyric Theatre" (1972)

Katy Carrington speaks to Barbara Watt and George Killough about Belfast College of Art Show
From: "Final year fashion students from the Belfast College of Art show" (1973)

Closing/outro transition or animation of the Abbeyfield and Wesley logo.

Society & Culture

Abbeyfield and Wesley Logo transitional opening.

Bob McFadden and William Mullan walk down to the river to fish for pearls.
From: "Pearl Fishing" (1955)

Footage relating to various weather conditions in Northern Ireland.
From: "Storms, Floods and Sunshine" (1960 - 1969)

Models parade in front of the factory workers.
From: "Fashion show held by Doagh Spinning Company" (1968)

Dairy Queen Beauty Contest winners photographed in a snow-covered field, having snowball fights.
From: "The winners of the Dairy Queen Beauty Contest 1969 contest" (1970)

Ballycastle hosts Celebrated event, The Lammas Fair.
From: "The Lammas Fair is celebrated at Ballycastle." (1970)

Newtownhamilton holds Orange parade.
From: "The Orange parade at Newtownhamilton." (1970)

Crowds of people in Bangor gather to see Santa.
From: "Santa Claus visits Bangor, accompanied by an elephant." (1970)

David Capper reports on living conditions complaints at Carrick House.
From: "Reports on complaints about living conditions at Carrick House." (1971)

Carol singing in Lisburn and the Dunmurry area.
From: "The Dunmurry Christmas tree carol singing" (1972)

Queen's University boat race in Lagan.
From: "Queen's University rag week takes to the water with a "boat" race along the Lagan" (1973)

Closing/outro transition or animation of the Abbeyfield and Wesley logo.

Sports

Abbeyfield and Wesley Logo transitional opening.

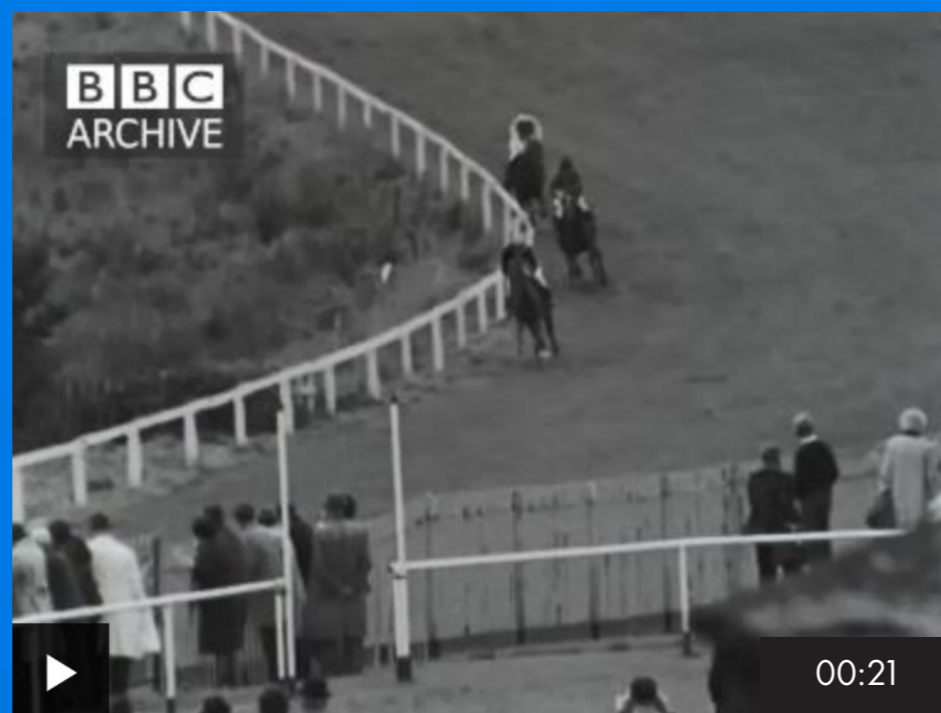

Coverage of the Club Orange Championships, from Balmoral Golf Club, South Belfast.
From: "Balmoral Golf Club, South Belfast" (1968)

Report on the practice sessions ahead of the forthcoming North West 200. Includes an interview with John Hartley.
From: "Ahead of the forthcoming North West 200" (1968)

Rally racing: dirt roads circuit.
From: "Circuit of Ireland rally racing GVS" (1969)

County Down Horse racing, winning lap.
From: "Horse racing at Downpatrick Racecourse" (1969)

footage of the game of cricket held in northern ireland in the late 60s.
From: "Cricket" (1969)

George Best trains with Northern Ireland football team.
From: "Russian and Northern Ireland football teams train in Belfast"
(1969)

Coverage of Dundrid, County Antrim - Ulster Grand Prix.
From: "Ulster Grand Prix race" (1969)

James Hunt in Kirkistown, County Down.
From: "James Hunt is interviewed during Formula 3 racing at Kirkistown" (1971)

A report on a girl, Eileen, who plays hurling and football at St
Enda's.
From: "Hurling and football at St Enda's (1971)

People Rowing at County Fermanagh.
From: "People go rowing on River Erne." (1971)

Closing/outro transition or animation of the Abbeyfield and Wesley logo.

Travel & Transport

Abbeyfield and Wesley Logo transitional opening.

M1 Motorway, Diggers working around a solitary house
From: "Completion of M1 delayed by presence of single house"
(1966)

Interior and exterior shots of Ulster Prince vessel at sea and cabins and lounges. Captain looking out to sea and officers on the bridge.
From: "MV Ulster Prince' car ferry, launched by Harland and Wolff." (1967)

Vehicles have difficulty with snow in Gleshane Pass.
From: "Snow ploughs and gritters take to the roads" (1968)

Woman passes her test and exchanges 'L' plates for 'R' plates.
From: "Driving: Introduction of 'R' Plates" (1968)

Footage of Motorway accident in Northern Ireland.
From: "Motorway accident - lorry container overturns." (1969)

Footage of trains and smiling crew at Victoria Street Station.
From: "Great Victoria Street Station " (1969)

Passengers boarding plane.
From: "Film: GV's B.U.A. plane; passengers prepare to board"
(1969)

Eric Waugh interviews Derry / Londonderry taxi manager about fares.
From: "Londonderry taxi manager Stephen Smith about fares."
(1970)

The Enterprise train crashed, two goods wagons were wrecked.
From: "The Enterprise train from Dublin to Belfast crashed at Portadown". (1971)

The Royal National Lifeboat institution at Queen Elizabeth II Bridge.
From: "The Royal National Lifeboat Institute builds a new lifeboat"
(1971)

Closing/outro transition or animation of the Abbeyfield and Wesley logo.

Business & Industry

Abbeyfield and Wesley Logo transitional opening.

Scenes of men working in the industrial sector, showing the old ways of work, old work cloths, tools, etc...
From: "Pattern of Ulster: Part one" (1953)

Scenes of men turning wool into yarn.
From: "Pattern of Ulster: Part two" (1953)

Shows the construction of a new pier in Larne, County Antrim to increase the size of the harbour.
From: "News: New Pier for Ulster" (1954)

Footage from a newly open Nylon factory in Antrim at the time.
From: "News: Princess Beatrix/Ulster" (1963)

Shows footage of workers in a timber mill.
From: "Six Ten: Wooden House" (1964)

Shows work ongoing on a tanker in Harland and Wolff.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1968)

Footage of women working in a linen plant.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1968)

Shows work inside the Pendragon Shirt Factory in Coalisland.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1970)

Scenes from a bakery and how bread was made within the Ormeau Bakery.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1970)

Scenes of worker in a silversmith in Bangor, County Down.
From: "Scene Around Six Tape_1971" (1971)

Closing/outro transition or animation of the Abbeyfield and Wesley logo.

Education

Abbeyfield and Wesley Logo transitional opening.

Scenes of the new Queen's university halls of residence at the time.
From: "Six Five: Queen's University halls of residence" (1966)

Show schoolchildren from Londonderry make models of redevelopment area.
From: "Six Five: Derry/Londonderry schoolchildren" (1966)

Footage in and around the newly opened University of Ulster at Coleraine.
From: "Scene Around Six: New University of Ulster at Coleraine" (1968)

Footage of schoolboys spending the day with the Royal Irish Ranger.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1969)

Footage of a science fair in Dungannon, County Tyrone.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1969)

Footage of schoolchildren being given a talk by the headmaster.
From: "News: Derry/Londonderry schoolkids: Effects of troubles"
(1969)

A reenactment of the Battle of Benburb performed by pupils of Dungannon School.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1969)

Footage of the official opening of the Ulster College of Art.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1970)

Students holding a 5-a-side football marathon to raise funds for Oxfam and to break into the Guinness Book of Records.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1970)

Footage of school children on a bus from a bygone era.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1970)

Closing/outro transition or animation of the Abbeyfield and Wesley logo.

Health

Abbeyfield and Wesley Logo transitional opening.

Footage of the opening ceremony of the new Royal College of Nursing.
From: "Report From Belfast: Duchess of Kent" (1954)

Lord Wakehurst, the Governor of Northern Ireland laying the foundation stone of the new general hospital.
From: "News: Governor of Northern Ireland Lays Foundation Stone" (1956)

James Boyce reporting on an old countryman's use of a charm to cure a wide variety of ailments.
From: "Six Five: Cure for Sprains" (1964)

The introduction of a new American style of ambulance in Northern Ireland.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1968)

Scenes of Nurses from Altnagelvin Hospital.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1969)

Footage of a newly opened medical library in Northern Ireland.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1970)

Footage of Mental Awareness posters from the time.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1970)

Footage of C Jamison demonstrating the new techniques in burn care.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1970)

Footage of a training exercise involving a mock train crash.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1971)

A new ambulance received by St John Ambulance Brigade.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1974)

Closing/outro transition or animation of the Abbeyfield and Wesley logo.

Politics & Government

Abbeyfield and Wesley Logo transitional opening.

The Queen's state visit to Northern Ireland.
From: "News: Belfast's Royal Welcome" (1953)

Footage of the time leading up to a election in Northern Ireland.
From: "News: Northern Ireland: The Coming Election" (1953)

Mid-Ulster by-election, shows footage of politicians meeting with people and polling stations.
From: "News: Ulster Elections" (1955)

Footage of Northern Ireland's new parliament being opened by Lord Wakehurst, the Governor of Northern Ireland.
From: "News: State Opening of N.Ireland Parliament" (1958)

Shows Jim Kilfedder and Johnny McQuade riding a float, followed by Unionist supports and a band, celebrating Kilfedder's election victory.
From: "Six Five: Jim Kilfedder victory" (1964)

Loyalist protest march through Portadown being lead by Reverand Ian Paisley.
From: "News Time: Ian Paisley leads demonstration in Portadown against Prime Minister Terence O'Neill" (1967)

Showing Terence O'Neill meeting with the Republics Prime Minister, Jack Lynch.
From: "News Time: Jack Lynch at Stormont" (1967)

Shows footage of the Unionist party conference.
From: "Inquiry: Captain O'Neill" (1968)

Footage of a Civil Rights Movement holding a march in Derry/Londonderry.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1968)

Footage showing the aftermath of the Civil Rights march.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1968)

Closing/outro transition or animation of the Abbeyfield and Wesley logo.

Science & Technology

Abbeyfield and Wesley Logo transitional opening.

Footage of the first television transmitter in Northern Ireland.
From: "News: Here and There: TV Transmitter" (1953)

Scenes of a new experimental research plane built by the Short Bros Belfast.
From: "Sherpa To Carry Out Research" (1953)

Shows a car driven purely by a jet engine.
From: "News: Car driven by pure jet engine in motor race" (1957)

Footage of a new television transmitter opened by the BBC in Derry/Londonderry.
From: "New Television Transmitter, Londonderry" (1957)

An exhibition of the latest in dental equipment.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1968)

A new computer demonstrated at Belfast Savings Bank.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1969)

Footage of a Shorts Skyvan in flight and landing.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1970)

Showcases the various automated machines and inventions at an exhibition.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1970)

Footage of a Shorts Skyliner aircraft taking off.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1970)

Shows footage of another computer being used at a Transportation Exhibition.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1970)

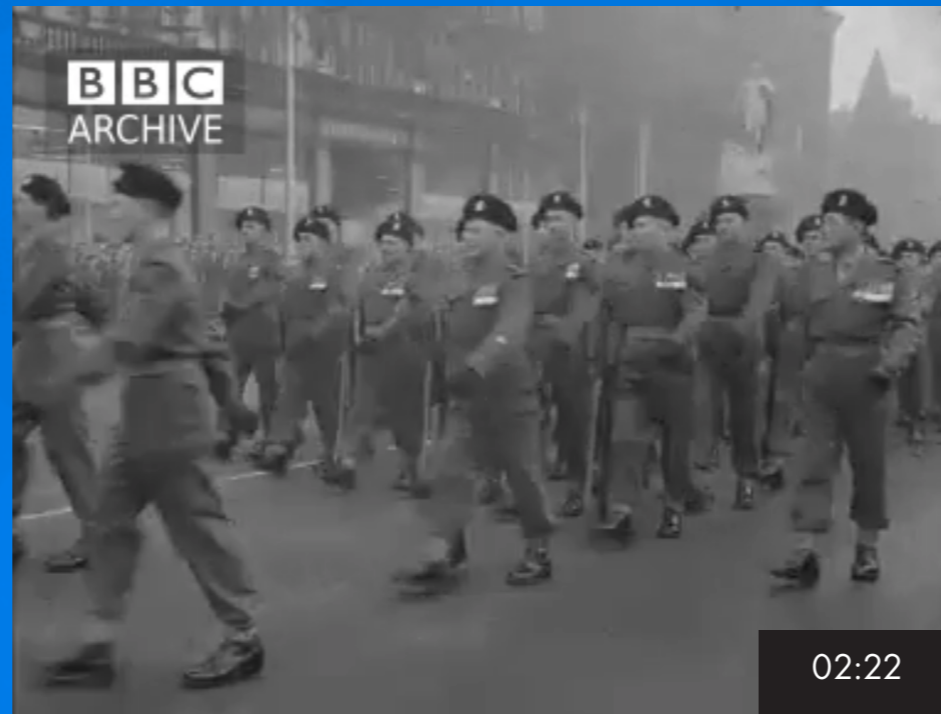

Closing/outro transition or animation of the Abbeyfield and Wesley logo.

Security & Conflict

Abbeyfield and Wesley Logo transitional opening.

Shows the Royal Ulster Rifles receiving the freedom of the city in recognition of their service in Korea.
From: "Northern Ireland: Royal Ulster Rifles Honoured" (1954)

Footage of Gannet Squadron in operation.
From: "News Gannet Squadron" (1955)

Footage showcasing the results of a three night riot in Belfast.
From: "News: Republicans demand return of flag" (1964)

Footage of the response from the rioting of stronger police presence.
From: "News: Belfast: Extra police after rioting" (1964)

Scenes of growing tensions in Belfast as militant protestants march through the city.
From: "News: Belfast - Militant Protestants march" (1966)

Scenes of a helicopter arriving with military personnel.
From: "News Time" (1967)

Scenes of the aftermath of a house raided by the IRA in Sultan Street where a number of weapons were stolen.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1968)

Footage of the People's Democracy civil rights march arriving in Antrim and met by Ronald Bunting and other protesters.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1969)

Footage of the Army Blue Eagle helicopter acrobatic team.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1969)

Footage of a RUC passing out parade in Enniskillen.
From: "Scene Around Six" (1969)

Closing/outro transition or animation of the Abbeyfield and Wesley logo.

